Complaints Handling Policy

For the purpose of interpreting this section concerning our Complaints Handling policy, Underwriters shall be referred to as “We” “Us” and “Our”.

We, the Underwriters, always aim to provide the Assured with the best possible service. If the Assured feels that We have not provided the best possible service or made an error, then please advise Us in the first instance. We will take the Assured’s complaint seriously and do Our best to investigate and resolve it as quickly as possible. We have established the following complaints handling procedure to ensure that this happens.

Step 1

Tell Us about it. There are different ways the Assured can do that.

1. Communicate with the Broker and let it know that the Assured is dissatisfied with the service they have received and tell why.
2. Contact Our complaints’ team:
complaints.europe@convexin.com
Convex Europe S.A.
Office 515, 2nd Floor Reception, 53 Boulevard Royal, 2449 Luxembourg

We will acknowledge the Assured's complaint promptly and We will let the Assured know who will be handling their complaint and provide the Assured with their contact details.

Step 2

We aim to resolve the Assured's complaint as soon as possible. If it is complicated or We need to investigate the circumstances further, then We may not be able to resolve it straight away and it may take longer depending on its complexity. We aim to get the Assured a final response within eight (8) weeks of receiving their complaint. If We cannot do so, then We will tell the Assured why it is taking more time and let the Assured know what We are doing and how long We expect it will take to resolve.

Step 3

If the Assured is not happy with Our response, or actions, and feels that the matter has not been resolved to their satisfaction, then there are two options to take it further:

1. If the complaint is not resolved to the Assured's satisfaction or the Assured has not received a final response, they may contact Richard Williams, the General Manager (Dirigeant Agréé) of Convex Europe S.A. who can advise the Assured on how to proceed further and may be able to help in resolving the problem.

Telephone: (+352) 27 86 22 76

2. If the complaint is not resolved to the Assured's satisfaction or the Assured has not received a final response, the Assured may contact the Insurance Ireland Information Service who can advise the Assured on how to proceed further and may be able to help in resolving the problem.

The Insurance Ireland Information Service's contact details are: First Floor, Insurance Ireland, Insurance Centre, 5 Harbourmaster Place, IFSC, Dublin 1, DO1 E7E8.

The Assured may be eligible to refer their complaint to the Financial Services & Pensions Ombudsman (FSPO). FSPO may be able to assist in limited circumstances if they remain dissatisfied with Underwriters' final response. Those limited circumstances are where the policy is taken out by a consumer. The term 'consumer' includes the following:

- a) individual customers or groups of persons including partnerships and unincorporated bodies such as clubs, charities and trusts.
- b) incorporated bodies or limited companies with turnovers of less than EUR 3,000,000 in previous financial year.

Please note that there are time limits within which the Assured must contact the FSPO (these limits have been mentioned previously in this Policy). Convex Europe S.A. is required to give the Assured their final response within 40 working days of their complaint, at the most, depending on what the Assured has complained about. The Assured should get in touch with the FSPO after the expiry of 40 working days if the Assured has not received a final response to their complaint or is dissatisfied with the response.

3. Document Retention

In addition to their obligations set out in Claims Procedure (above), the Assured shall at all times ensure that all documentation relevant to a Claim or Circumstance are retained and not destroyed or disposed of. In the event of a breach of this term, the Underwriters may be entitled to pay a Claim under this Policy in its entirety.

General Terms and Conditions

This part of the Policy sets out the General Terms and Conditions. These apply to all Operative Covers and they are in addition to the terms specific to each Operative Cover.

1. Allocation of Recoveries

If a recovery is made or recovery proceeds are received from a third party in respect of any loss or Claims which may or have been paid, either in whole or in part, under this Policy, the recovery proceeds shall be applied as follows:

- a) the costs of pursuing the recovery shall first be deducted from the recovery proceeds and repaid to the Underwriters;
- b) from the remaining balance, the Assured should receive any sum paid or lost by it (excluding interest), in excess of its indemnification under this Policy;
- c) after payment of the above, the Underwriters should receive all sums they have paid (excluding interest) in respect of the loss which is the subject of the recovery;
- d) after payment of the above, the Assured receives any balance (excluding interest);
- e) after payment of above, any interest recovered should be distributed between the Assured and the Underwriters in the same manner outlined above.

2. Alterations in Risk

The Assured is required to notify the Underwriters as soon as is reasonably practicable of all material facts or alterations in the risk which come to its knowledge or arise during the Policy Period. The Underwriters reserve the right to amend the Policy's terms and conditions. Underwriters may refuse a claim where there is a change in the subject matter of the contract of insurance.

In the event of a breach of this term, the Underwriters shall have no liability under this Policy unless the Assured shows that the non-compliance with this term could not have increased the risk of the loss which actually occurred in the circumstances in which it occurred.

3. Apportionment of Defence Costs

Except where the Limit of Liability is inclusive of Defence Costs, if a payment exceeding the Limit of Liability has to be made to dispose of a Claim, the liability of the Underwriters to pay all Defence Costs in connection therewith shall be limited to such proportion of the said Defence Costs as the Limit of Liability bears to the amount paid to dispose of a Claim.

4. Cancellation

- a) The Assured is entitled to cancel this Policy by giving the Underwriters thirty (30) days' notice in writing.
- b) The Underwriters are entitled to cancel this Policy by giving the Assured thirty (30) days' notice in writing.

Upon such cancellation by either the Assured or the Underwriters, any return of Premium due to the Assured will be calculated at a proportional daily rate depending on how long the Policy has been in force unless the Assured have made a claim in which case the full annual Premium is due.

5. Currency

The currency of all Premiums, sums insured, Limits of Liability and Excesses shown in this Policy, Schedule, Endorsement(s) or any renewal shall be Euros indicated as EUR.

6. Discharge of Liability

The Underwriters may at any time pay to the Assured in connection with any Claim or series of Claims under this Policy to which a Limit of Liability applies the amount of such Limit (after deduction of any sums already paid) or any lesser amount for which such Claims can be settled. Upon such payment being made, and the payment of Defence Costs incurred prior to the date of such payment where such Defence Costs are stated as being in addition to the relevant Limit of Liability, Underwriters shall relinquish the conduct and control of and be under no further liability in connection with such Claims.

7. Duty of Disclosure

The Assured must answer the Underwriters' questions "honestly and with reasonable care" (the test of reasonable care being by reference to that of the "average consumer").

If, prior to entering into this Policy, the Assured breaches the applicable pre-contractual duty of disclosure (the "Duty"), the remedies available to the Underwriters are set out below:

- a) if the Assured's breach of the Duty is false and misleading:
 - i. the Underwriters may avoid the Policy and refuse to pay all claims; and
 - ii. the Underwriters need not return any of the Premium paid.
- b) if the Assured's breach of the Duty is negligent, the Underwriters' remedy shall depend upon what the Underwriters would have done if the Assured had complied with the Duty:
 - i. if the Underwriters would not have entered into the Policy at all, the Underwriters may avoid the Policy and refuse to pay all claims but must return the Premium paid.
 - ii. if the Underwriters would have entered into the Policy, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the Premium), the Policy is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms, if the Underwriters so require.
 - iii. if the Underwriters would have entered into the Policy, but would have charged a higher Premium, then the Underwriters may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim (and any amounts paid on prior claims). In those circumstances, the Underwriters shall pay only X% of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.

If, prior to concluding a variation, the Assured shall breach the Duty, the remedies available to the Underwriters are set out below:

- c) if the Assured's breach of the Duty is false and misleading:
 - i. the Underwriters may by notice to the Assured treat the contract as having been terminated from the time when the variation was concluded; and
 - ii. the Underwriters need not return any of the Premium paid.
- d) if the Assured's breach of the Duty is negligent, the Underwriters' remedy shall depend upon what the Underwriters would have done if the Assured had complied with the Duty:
 - i. if the Underwriters would not have agreed to the variation at all, the Underwriters may treat the contract as if the variation was never made but must in that event return any extra Premium paid.
 - ii. if the Underwriters would have agreed to the variation to the contract, but on different terms (other than terms relating to the Premium), the variation is to be treated as if it had been entered into on those different terms, if the Underwriters so requires.
 - iii. if the Underwriters would have increased the Premium by more than it did or at all, then the Underwriters may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the Underwriters shall pay only X% of what it would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{Premium actually charged/higher premium}) \times 100$.
 - iv. if the Underwriters would not have reduced the Premium as much as they did or at all, then the Underwriters may reduce proportionately the amount to be paid on a claim arising out of events after the variation. In those circumstances, the Underwriters shall pay only X% of what they would otherwise have been required to pay, where $X = (\text{premium actually charged/reduced total Premium}) \times 100$.

8. Excess

Where an excess is stated in the Schedule the Assured shall be responsible for the first amount so specified each and every Occurrence, inclusive of costs and expenses.

No cover will be granted under any Operative Cover for the amount of the Excess stated in the Schedule. The Limits of Liability stated in the Schedule are in excess of and not reduced by the amount of any Excess.

Where an Occurrence gives rise to liability under Operative Covers B (Public Liability), C (Product Liability) and/or D (Pollution Liability) only the largest Excess of those Operative Covers shall apply to all losses and Claims arising from that Occurrence.

9. False and Misleading Claims

- a) If the Assured knowingly or recklessly makes a claim under this Policy that is false or misleading in any material respect ("Fraudulent Act"):
 - i. the Underwriters are not liable to pay the claim;
 - ii. the Underwriters may recover from the Assured any sums paid by the Underwriters to the Assured in respect of the claim; and
 - iii. in addition, the Underwriters may by written notice to the Assured (as soon as is practicable after becoming aware that a consumer has made a fraudulent claim), treat the Policy as having been terminated with effect from the time of the Fraudulent Act.
- b) If the Underwriters do treat the Policy as having been terminated:
