CONSUMER INSURANCE CONTRACTS ACT 2019

New Business and Renewal

- i) You may cancel a contract of insurance, by giving notice in writing to the Insurer, within 14 working days after the date you were informed that the contract is concluded. This does not affect the notice periods already provided under European Union (Insurance and Reinsurance) Regulations 2015 (S.I. No. 485 of 2015) or the European Communities (Distance Marketing of Consumer Financial Services) Regulations 2004 (S.I. No. 853 of 2004) which is 14 days in respect of general insurance policies and only on sales that took place on a non-face to face basis (distance sales). The giving of notice of cancellation by you will have the effect of releasing you from any further obligation arising from the contract of insurance. The Insurer cannot impose any costs on you other than the cost of the premium for the period of cover. This right to cancel does not apply where, in respect of general insurance, the duration of the contract is less than one month
- ii) You are under a duty to pay your premium within a reasonable time, or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the contract of insurance
- iii) A court of competent jurisdiction can reduce the pay-out to you if you are in breach of their duties under the Act, in proportion to the breach involved

Post Contract Stage and Claims

- i) If, in respect of the insurance contract the Insurer is not obliged to pay the full claim settlement amount until any repair, replacement or reinstatement work has been completed and specified documents for the work have been furnished to the Insurer, the claim settlement deferment amount cannot exceed:
 - 5% of the Claim Settlement amount where the Claim Settlement amount is less than €40,000, or
 - 10% of the Claim Settlement amount where the Claim Settlement amount is more than €40,000
 - ii) An Insurer may refuse a claim made by you under a contract of insurance where there is a change in the risk insured, including as described in an "alteration of risk" clause, and the circumstances have so changed that it has effectively changed the risk to one which the Insurer has not agreed to cover
 - iii) Any clause in a contract of insurance that refers to a "material change" will be interpreted as being a change that takes the risk outside what was in the reasonable contemplation of the contracting parties when the contract was concluded
 - iv) You must cooperate with the Insurer in an investigation of insured events including responding to reasonable requests for information in an honest and reasonably careful manner and you must notify the Insurer of the occurrence of an insured event in a reasonable time
 - v) You must notify the Insurer of a claim within a reasonable time, or otherwise in accordance with the terms of the contract of insurance
 - vi) If you become aware after a claim is made of information that would either support or prejudice the claim, you are under a duty to disclose it. The Insurer is under the same duty
 - vii) If you make a false or misleading claim in any material respect (and know it to be false or misleading or consciously disregards whether it is) the Insurer is entitled to refuse to pay and to terminate the contract
 - viii) Where an Insurer becomes aware that a Consumer has made a fraudulent claim, they may notify the Consumer advising that they are avoiding the contract of insurance. It will be treated as being terminated from the date of the submission of the fraudulent claim. The Insurer may refuse all liability in respect of any claim made after the date of the fraudulent act, and the Insurer is under no obligation to return any of the premiums paid under the contract
- The Consumer Insurance Contracts Act 2019 does not apply to non-Consumer Clients who are defined as a Company (including as a member of a Group of Companies) with a turnover of greater than €3million in the previous financial year.

Regular Reviews

It is in your best interests that you review, on a regular basis, the products which we have arranged for you. As your circumstances change, your needs will change which may result in you having insufficient insurance cover and/or inappropriate investments. We would therefore advise that you contact us to ensure that you are provided with up to date advice and products best suited to your needs

Consumers: Duty of Disclosure when completing documentation for New Business, Renewals and Mid-Term Adjustments

Section 8 and Section 14 (1) - (5) of the Consumer Insurance Contracts Act which is effective from 1st September 2021 alters Consumers Duty of Disclosure:

- You are required to answer all questions posed by us or the Insurer honestly and with reasonable care - the test will be that of the 'Average

Consumer'. 'Average Consumer' as per Directive No. 2005/29/EC of the European Parliament and of the Council of 11 May 2005 is reasonably well informed and reasonably observant and circumspect, taking into account Social, Cultural and Linguistic factors.

- Specific questions will be asked. Where you do not provide additional information (after being requested to do so) it can be presumed that the information previously provided remains unchanged.

An Insurer may repudiate liability or limit the amount paid on foot of the contract of insurance, only if it establishes that non-disclosure of material information was an effective cause of the Insurer entering into the relevant contract of insurance and on the terms on which it did.

Completed Proposal Forms / Statement of Fact

Completed Proposal Forms or Statement of Facts will be provided to you. These are important documents as they form the basis of insurance contract between the Insurer and you the Consumer. You should review and confirm that the answers contained within are true and accurate. If any of the answers are not true and accurate please contact our office immediately. Any corrections that are deemed necessary may result in the risk being re-submitted to the Insurer who's Premium and / or Terms and Conditions may be subject to change as a result.

Non-Consumer Clients: Disclosure of Information

It is essential that you bring to our attention any material alteration in risk such as change of address or use of premises. Any failure to disclose material information may invalidate your claim and render your policy void.

SERVICES PROVIDED

McCarthy Insurance Group is an impartial Insurance Broker and a Credit Intermediary. As an impartial Insurance Broker we are in a position to place your business with a very wide range of product producers in the Irish, UK & European Insurance markets. We don't have a 'tied' relationship with any product producer which would compromise our ability to provide you with impartial advice and choice. You must inform us immediately of any changes in circumstances which may affect the services provided by us or the cover provided by your policy. If you are unsure about any matter please contact us for guidance.

PRODUCTS

Our authorisations enable us to provide our customers with a wide range of Insurance and Investment products. A non-exhaustive list of the products we can provide include: General (Non-life) Insurance Policies, Health Insurance, Insurance Premium Finance, Life Assurance, Long Term Disability and Specified Serious Illness Cover, Investment Bonds, Tracker Bonds, Personal Retirement Savings Accounts (PRSAs), Group Pensions and Deposits.

RECEIVE and TRANSMIT ORDERS

We can receive and transmit orders, on your behalf, for products from each insurance company or financial services provider (Product Producer) with whom we hold an agency. A list of our current product producers is available on request from any of our offices.

FAIR and PERSONAL ANALYSIS

We provide all our services on the basis of a fair and personal analysis of the market. This means we will research the market on your behalf and recommend the product(s) that, in our professional opinion, are best suited to your own needs and objectives.

FAIR and PERSONAL ANALYSIS - HEALTH INSURANCE

While we can provide you with a fair and personal analysis of your health insurance needs, comparing and contrasting the various plans that are available across the whole market, we can only place your business with one Health Insurance Product Provider - Irish Life Health DAC. We may charge you a fee for any health insurance advice that we provide to you, even where the advice doesn't result in the purchase of a health insurance policy from us.

PREMIUM FINANCE

As a credit intermediary, McCarthy Insurance Group can arrange finance for your insurance premium.

INSURANCE SCHEMES

We have agreed special packages (Insurance Schemes) with specific product producers for particular types of cover and for members of certain professional, trade or representative associations. The packages and product producers are selected following a thorough and fair analysis of the market and an assessment that they are the most suitable for typical consumers of that type of cover or for members of those associations. Where we assess consumers as being eligible for these packages, we don't research the market on a case-by-case basis, but rather place the business with the preferred provider.

BINDING AUTHORITY

We have entered into binding Authority agreements with some insurers. These agreements enable us to accept insurance business on the insurer's behalf, in accordance with the insurer's underwriting guidelines. Under these agreements we act as agent of the insurer in some regards. Where we intend to place your insurance under such an agreement we shall inform you prior to the inception of the insurance contract.

REMUNERATION

McCarthy Insurance Group is remunerated by a combination of commission and fees.

COMMISSION

We are often remunerated by commission paid to us by: 1) Product Producers on placing of your insurance business with them and 2) Premium Finance Companies for arranging the finance of your premium with them. This commission compensates us for the work involved in placing an order and finalising the product with them on your behalf. The amount of commission earned will vary greatly depending on the product type and the product producer. A growing number of Product Producers pay no commission. Some Product Producers pay commission that is not related to the placement of individual policies with them but are based on other factors such as the volume of business introduced to them over time. Details of the commission earned by us on your policy will be disclosed to you at your request. The amount of any commission received by McCarthy Insurance Group will not be deducted from any fee payable.

FEES and CHARGES

McCarthy Insurance Group is remunerated by a Professional Fee paid directly by the client for work carried out on the client's behalf. A Professional Fee may be charged by us for: The initial work and time spent in seeking the best terms, advice, product and product producer for your specific needs; The work carried out on the renewal of your policy, ensuring that the policy(-ies) recommended to you are suitable for your needs; Arranging premium finance on your behalf; Alterations, amendments and endorsements to your policy; Processing a policy cancellation or a policy suspension; Duplicate documentation requested by you; Insurance consultancy work, including risk management advice and surveys; Administration work on payment defaults, including Direct Debit defaults, bounced cheques etc; Claims handling assistance and general insurance advice; and any other activity detailed in this Terms of Business or our schedule of charges.

PROFESSIONAL FEES - NON-REFUNDABLE

Professional Fees remunerate us for time spent working on behalf of the customer and are not refundable in the event that the policy is cancelled.

ARAG LEGAL EXPENSES and PERSONAL ACCIDENT PREMIUM

The premium payable for optional ARAG Legal Expenses & Personal Accident cover is refundable in the event that the policy is cancelled.
