1. Accident and Claim Procedure

You or Your legal personal representatives must inform Us immediately in writing about any accident, injury or damage and send Us any letter, claim, writ, summons or other information about the accident or claim as soon as You receive same. You or Your legal personal representatives must also inform Us immediately of any intended civil or criminal proceedings or Coroner's Inquest for which there may be liability under this Policy. You must complete an Accident Report Form and supply any other documents as requested by Us.

2. Conduct of Claims

You or any person insured by this Policy must not negotiate, admit liability or make any offer, promise or payment for any claim unless You have Our written permission. We are entitled to take over and conduct in Your name (or in the name of any person covered by this Policy) the defence, prosecution or settlement of any claim for Our own benefit. Anyone making a claim under this Policy must provide any information and assistance We may reasonably require.

We shall pay any sums due to You in respect of the claim within a reasonable time and where it is not possible to quantify the total value of the claim within a reasonable time, but where part of the total value has been quantified, We shall pay that part to You within a reasonable time

3. Other Insurances

If a claim for loss, damage or liability arises under this Policy and it is covered by any other insurance, We will only pay Our rateable share of the claim. We are not required to make any payment under this condition if We would not have been liable.

4. Documentation Requirement

If a claim for loss, damage or liability arises under this Policy We will ask You to forward to Us the following documentation in addition to any other relevant documentation that We may require:

- a) Fully completed Accident Report Form.
- b) The current driving licence of the person(s) involved in the accident.

5. Care of the Insured Vehicle

You must take all reasonable steps to protect the Insured Vehicle from loss or damage and keep it in an efficient and roadworthy condition. Whilst not being driven, the Insured Vehicles must be locked at all times and the vehicle keys removed from the vehicle. If We ask, You must allow Us free access to examine the Insured Vehicle at any reasonable time.

6. Policyholder's Duty

You must observe the terms of the Policy relating to anything to be done or complied with by You or so far as they can apply by any other person entitled to indemnity under this Policy.

7. Cancellation

We may cancel this Policy by sending 7 days' notice by registered post to Your last known address. When the Certificate of Motor Insurance and Insurance Disc are returned to Us, We will refund the pro-rata portion of the premium for the unexpired period of insurance. If there has been a claim during the Policy period, no refund of premium will be made. All claim notifications will be considered as a claim until such time that the claim is settled and liability settled. On Your failure to return the Certificate of Motor Insurance and Disc to Us, written notification will be sent by Us to the relevant Government Department.

You may cancel this insurance by giving Us 7 days' notice in writing. Providing there have been no claims during the current complete year of insurance and You return the Certificate of Motor Insurance and Insurance Disc to Us, We will refund the premium less the Insurer's short period rate for the time the Policy has been in force. See Our Short Period Rates table on Page 23.

Cancellation will be effective from the date We receive the Certificate of Motor Insurance and Insurance Disc and shall be a prerequisite to any return of premium. No return of premium will be due if We cancel the Policy under the Fraud condition.

8. Total Loss Claims

If We pay in respect of any claim under Sections 2 or 3 of this Policy on the basis the Insured Vehicle is a total loss, no refund of Your premium will be given. We will, however, allow You to substitute a replacement Motor Vehicle on the Policy.

9. Arbitration

Any dispute between You and Us regarding Our liability in respect of a claim or the amount to be paid shall, in default of an agreement, be referred within twelve months of the dispute arising to an Arbitrator appointed jointly by You and Us, or failing agreement appointed by the President for the time being of the Incorporated Law Society of Ireland, and the decision of such Arbitrator shall be final and binding on both parties. Where any difference is referred to arbitration, the making of an award shall be a prerequisite to any right of action against Us.

Any claims not referred to arbitration within 12 calendar months from the date of disclaimer of the liability shall be deemed to have been abandoned.

10. Drink / Drugs Clause

Our liability will be restricted to provide only the minimum insurance cover as required by law, if:

- i) As a result of any accident, injury, loss or damage, any person driving is convicted of an offence under Section 49 and/or 50 of the Road Traffic Act 1961 or 13, 14 and 15 of the Road Traffic Act 1973 or any equivalent offence under the laws of other countries to which this insurance applies.

In respect of a pending prosecution, any decision in relation to the cover provided by this Policy would be determined when the pending prosecution has been fully determined.

13. Fair Presentation of Risk

You must answer all questions asked by Us honestly and with reasonable care.

All of the information which You give Us and all of the answers You have provided to the questions which We asked You, leading to the inception of this Policy, at renewal or, at any time are treated as representations made by You to Us.

A misrepresentation is where someone makes a statement which is not correct to another person.

Negligent Misrepresentation

A negligent misrepresentation means a representation made without reasonable care but which was not fraudulent.

- a) If You make a claim and if You have made a negligent misrepresentation, We may avoid the Policy from the date of inception or renewal, refuse to pay any claims and return the premium paid by You, if We would not have entered into the Policy, on any terms.
- b) If We would have issued the Policy on different terms if You answered Our questions honestly and with reasonable care, We may:
 - (i) reduce proportionately the amount paid or payable on any claim, calculating the proportion for which We are liable by comparing the premium actually charged as a percentage of the premium which We would have charged; or
 - (ii) treat the Policy as if it had included such additional terms (other than those requiring payment of premium) as We would have imposed.

Fraudulent Misrepresentation

If You make a claim and if You have made a fraudulent misrepresentation, We may avoid the Policy from the date of inception or renewal without return of premium.

For the purposes of this condition, references to:

- a) avoiding a Policy means treating the Policy as if it had not existed from the inception date (where the failure to make a fair presentation of the risk occurs before or at the inception of the Policy), the renewal date (where the failure occurs at renewal of the Policy), or the variation date (where the failure occurs when the Policy is varied);
- b) refunds of premium will be treated as refunds of premium back to the inception date, renewal date or variation date as the context requires;
- c) issuing a Policy will be treated as issuing the Policy at inception, renewing or varying the Policy as the context requires; and
- d) premium will be treated as the premium payable for the Policy.

14. Fraud

If You and anyone acting on Your behalf:

- a) knowingly makes a fraudulent or exaggerated claim under the Policy;
- b) knowingly makes a false statement in support of a claim under the Policy (whether or not the claim itself is genuine); or
- c) knowingly submits a false or forged document in support of a claim under the Policy (whether or not the claim itself is genuine);

We may:

- (i) refuse to pay the whole claim; and
- (ii) recover from You any sums that We have already paid in respect of the claim.

We may also notify You that We will be treating the Policy as having terminated with effect from the date of the earliest of any of the acts set out in paragraphs a), b), or c) above. In that event, You will:

1. have no cover under the Policy from the date of the termination; and
2. not be entitled to any refund of premium.

15. Contract Law

The parties to this contract are free to choose the law that will apply. Unless specifically agreed to the contrary, this insurance Policy will be subject to the laws of the Republic of Ireland.

16. Laws relating to Compulsory Motor Insurance

Nothing in this Policy shall affect the right of any person to recover an amount under or by virtue of the provisions of the law of any territory in which the Policy operates relating to the insurance of liability to third parties, but You shall repay to Us any such amount which We would not have been liable to pay but for the provisions of such law.

17. Insurance Act 1936

All monies which become or may become payable by Us under this Policy shall in accordance with Section 93 of the Insurance Act 1936 be payable and paid in the Republic of Ireland.

18. Finance Act

The appropriate Stamp Duty has been or will be paid in accordance with the Provisions of Section 113 of the Finance Act 1990.

19. National Fleet Database

You will upload all data required by the Motor Insurers' Bureau of Ireland to the National Fleet Database in a timely manner, having regard for the frequency of vehicle changes and the requirements of the Road Traffic Act 1961 (as amended).
